Using Homeowners Certificate of Insurance for Event Liability Coverage

A Certificate of Liability Insurance is required for all City of Pinole Facility rentals. This can be acquired by either purchasing a Certificate of Liability Insurance through the City of Pinole or providing one through the renter's personal Homeowners Insurance.

If a Certificate of Liability Insurance is acquired through a personal Homeowners Insurance, the following stipulations are required. Please make it clear to the insurance agent the event type and if you will be utilizing an inflatable jumper:

1. The Certificate must list the City of Pinole as Additional Insured.
2. The Liability is a minimum of $1million dollars for each occurrence of Property Damage and Bodily Injury.
3. The Certificate must list the facility rental LOCATION and DATE of rental.
4. The Certificate must state the name of the insured, which must be the same name as the primary renter of the facility.
5. The Certificate must state the Homeowner Policy Number.
6. The Insurer must be acceptable to the City of Pinole.
7. If alcohol is being served at the event, the organizers must include Proof of insurance covering "Host Liquor Liability."
