The consultants have been analyzing Pinole Fire as we operate today, and evaluating what options we have for potential enhancements to our service delivery model. Options include the City re-opening Station 74 and Pinole Fire operating from both Stations; as well as the City re-opening Station 74 and Contra Costa County Fire Protection District operating both stations.

The Council is very interested in hearing from the Community about your interest in Fire services and the potential to re-open Station 74. A parcel tax measure is being discussed by the City and may appear on the November 2020 ballot. Now is the time to make your voice heard, as it is important that the Council know what the Community as a whole would like to see with regard to Fire services, and what we are willing to pay for them.

Dear Director Salimi and Tamara,

MCE would like to share some recent news, achievements, and upcoming opportunities:

Community Information to Share

Please share this content with your community members, and in e-newsletters and County/City websites.

Napa County Solar Project Powers 1,000+ Homes Per Year

MCE and Renewable Properties celebrated the completion of MCE's first local, renewable energy project in Napa County in August with a ribbon cutting for the American Canyon Solar Project, one of the largest solar farms in Napa County. The annual 3 MW output from the project is expected to generate enough clean, locally-produced electricity to power over 1,000 homes per year. Read the American Canyon Solar Project press release to learn more.

MCE Rooftop Solar Customers Offered $2.8+ Million in Cash Back

MCE is issuing cash outs totaling over $2.8 million to rooftop solar customers when they have produced more electricity than they used themselves. MCE's Net Energy Metering (NEM) program currently provides incentives for rooftop solar customers, including paying premium rates that compensate solar customers at the full retail rate plus an extra penny per kilowatt-hour for excess electricity generated.

MCE General Counsel & Director of Policy, Shalini Swaroop, Recognized with SABA Public Interest Award

MCE extends our heartfelt congratulations to General Counsel and Director of Policy, Shalini Swaroop who received the 2019 South Asian Bar Association of North America's \(SABA\) Public Interest Award in recognition of her deep commitment to public service of the South Asian community and community-at-large. Ms. Swaroop was presented the award at SABA's 16th Annual Conference, "Rise Up and Represent."

Other MCE Updates

Please review this information and let us know if you have any questions.

Deep Green Campaign

MCE launched a geo-targeted digital ad campaign on August 1st, encouraging people to opt up to Deep Green 100% renewable energy. The ad campaign is one component of a multi-faceted Deep Green Opt Up effort that will also include targeted outreach and marketing to top commercial customers, partners and advocates, Chambers of Commerce, municipalities, electric vehicle drivers, and employees of Bay Area businesses, organizations, and agencies that have opted up their commercial accounts to 100% renewable with their respective CCA (see Employee Upgrade Challenge above). MCE's goal is to double our number of Deep Green accounts to 20,000.

Join the Employee Upgrade Challenge

MCE is participating in the Employee Upgrade Challenge, a Bay Area-wide CCA 100% renewable energy opt up campaign. Participating CCAs are partnering with commercial customers that have chosen their CCA's 100% renewable energy service to help their employees also opt up to 100% renewable energy. The campaign will utilize green teams or internal communications staff who can disseminate information to their employees. The Challenge will run throughout October in celebration of Energy Awareness Month. MCE encourages all of its member communities – especially those that have opted up their municipal accounts – to join the Employee Upgrade Challenge and help your employees opt up to 100% renewable energy, please contact Jenna Famular, MCE Community Development Manager, at engagement@mceCleanEnergy.org.

Community Power Advocate Training

In July, members of our advocacy collaborative, the Community Power Coalition, came together to share best practices and learn about how to lead campaigns for MCE's Deep Green 100% renewable energy, and engage in both local and statewide regulatory and legislative policy. MCE was excited to welcome our advocates to our Concord Office, and to both share and learn about how we can fight for a clean energy future together. Interested in getting involved? Contact MCE Community Equity Specialist, Justin Marquez, at jmarquez@mcecleanenergy.org.

Climate Mayors EV Purchasing Collaborative

Mayors of seven MCE member communities (listed below) have joined the national EV Purchasing Collaborative, which provides municipal policy and fleet procurement guidance for electric vehicles and negotiates lower vehicle prices by leveraging the collective purchasing power of the 140 cities \(and counting\) that have committed to buying 2,100 fleet EVs by next year. Help MCE improve electric vehicle fleet adoption by sharing any barriers you may have experienced with electrifying your municipal fleet to Brett Wiley, MCE Customer Programs Manager at: ev@mceCleanEnergy.org.
